

CALL FOR PAPERS

ETHNOWORKSHOP

May 6 & 7 2024

The 11th edition of the  Ethnography Workshop  will be hosted by ESADE Business School on May, 6th & 7th 2024 (Pedralbes campus, Building 1, Av. De Pedralbes, 60-62 BARCELONA).

This thrilling event is particularly recommended to PhD students working in a wide range of social sciences disciplines and relying on ethnographic approaches. Open to various research questions, this convivial event brings together exciting contributions from various fieldworks and offer you the opportunity to share topic(s) of your choice with your international colleagues in a friendly spirit.

Interested in this event? An Abstract of approx. 500 words (in EN- topic of your choice, as long as it involves ethnographic approaches) must be returned before February 12th to: blum@em-lyon.com

Authors will be notified of acceptance or otherwise by March 1st, 2024.

Full papers must be sent by April 15th to: blum@em-lyon.com

The participation is free of charge. Refreshments and meals are also provided. However, please note that participants are expected to cover their travel and accommodation expenses. Three emlyon Ethnography Institute grants of 500 euros are available to support participants with limited funding.

Organizing committee

David Courpasson, emlyon business school and Cardiff Business School
Ignasi Marti, ESADE Business School
Virginie Blum, emlyon business school